1 INTRODUCTION

- 1.1 The Singapore Examinations and Assessment Board (SEAB), together with the Ministry of Education, Singapore (MOE) and Cambridge International Education, are the joint examining authorities for the Singapore-Cambridge GCE-Level examinations. The examinations are administered by SEAB.
- 1.2 This document contains the examination rules and regulations that you need to know if you are sitting for the examinations as a school or private candidate.
- 1.3 By registering for the examination, you agree to comply with the examination instructions, rules and regulations in this booklet and other examination documents issued by SEAB; and accept the possible consequences if you breach them.
- 1.4 SEAB may issue additional administrative or procedural instructions for the conduct of specific examinations (e.g. written papers, coursework, oral, and practical papers). You will be informed of the new or updated instructions through your school if you are a school candidate and email notifications to your registered email address if you are a private candidate. The new or updated instructions will also be published on SEAB's website at <https://www.seab.gov.sg>. Unless stated otherwise, they will, form part of the examination rules and regulations for the examination year, effective from the date of announcement. You should check with your school or refer to SEAB's website for any updates to the examination rules and regulations, prior to your examinations.
- 1.5 No part of this document, whether image, text or otherwise, may be copied, reproduced, published, adapted, modified, distributed, transmitted, communicated or by any means without the prior written permission of SEAB.
- 1.6 For clarifications, school candidates should approach your schools. Private candidates should contact SEAB via our feedback form at <https://go.gov.sg/askusseab>.

2 EXAMINATION TIMETABLE AND ENTRY PROOF

2.1 Examination Timetables

The examination timetables are available on SEAB's website.

- 2.1.1 You will be marked as “Absent” if you miss any component for a subject and you will not be awarded a grade for the subject.
- 2.1.2 There is no re-sitting for all examination papers except for the GCE A-Level H1 Mother Tongue Language Written and Mother Tongue Language Syllabus B Written/Oral/LC examinations. For these Mother Tongue Language examinations, candidates who are eligible may register for the Year-End sitting after the release of the Mid-Year examination results.

2.2 Personalised Entry Proof

2.2.1 Oral and Listening Comprehension (LC) and Year-End Written Examinations

You will receive your Entry Proof with details of the examination dates, reporting times and examination venues from 24 June 2024. You must bring along this Entry Proof as it will be used to register as proof of attendance for the examination.

2.2.2 GCE A-Level Science Practical Examination

You will be notified of the schedule and venue of each of the practical examinations at least 7 days before that examination's date by the school (for school candidates) or via the registered email provided in the Candidate Portal (for private candidates). For more information, refer to section 7.3.

For School Candidates

2.2.3 If you have registered for the Mid-Year examinations, you will receive your Entry Proof from your school from 16 May 2024.

For the year-end examinations, you will receive an Entry Proof from your school from 24 June 2024.

2.2.4 The Entry Proof will show the following details:

- Your centre / index number,
- Examination venue (shown as school code and centre name),
- The subjects and papers you have registered for, and
- The examination dates and times of your papers.

2.2.5 You must bring along the hardcopy Entry Proof on each examination day together with your NRIC/ FIN/ Student Pass, as it will be used to verify your attendance at the examination venue. A sample Entry Proof is shown on the next page.

2.2.6 If you have registered for two papers which are scheduled to be examined at the same time on the same day, arrangements will be made for you to take one paper first and have a 45-minute break before you take the next paper. You will be informed of the arrangements through your school by early September 2024.

Instructions to Candidates

- You are required to bring along this Entry Proof and your photo-identification document (e.g NRIC or Student Pass) bearing the identification number as stated on this Entry Proof when you report for the examination. You have to report to the examination centre at least 30 mins before the commencement of the examination.
- If you are sitting for a Listening Comprehension (LC) examination, you must be seated at your assigned seat in the examination room by the start time of the paper that is indicated in this Entry Proof. Attendance will be taken, and examination instructions will be announced at the start time. The broadcast of the LC examination will begin 30 minutes after the start time. For Practical Examination(s) / Mother Tongue Syllabus B (Year-end) oral Examination/ Higher Music Performing/ Music Performing Examination (where applicable), you will be informed of your examination schedule through your school.
- For subjects where calculators/dictionaries are allowed, you must ensure that your calculators/dictionaries are listed in the "Approved Calculator List"/ "Approved Dictionary List". The lists can be found online at www.seab.gov.sg. It is important that you read and be familiar with the "Instructions For Candidates Affected By A Major Disruption" document which can be found online at www.seab.gov.sg.

To Note:

- Candidates sitting the GCE N(A), N(T), O or/and A-Level Examinations are required to observe and comply with all instructions and regulations governing the examinations. These are stated in the "Examination Rules and Regulations for School Candidates" booklet which will be given to all school candidates through their schools. Candidates must also observe and comply with any additional instructions and procedures that SEAB may announce nearer to the examination dates. School candidates will be informed of any updates of instructions and procedures through their schools.
- The possession of any electronic/communication devices (e.g. mobile phones, tablets)/computerised aids (e.g. computerised wrist watches) is strictly not allowed in the examination premises (e.g. examination room/hall, quarantine room, waiting room). Candidates who are found with these devices may be prohibited from taking the examination, expelled from the examination room, refused entry for subsequent papers, have their results terminated or a grade penalty and/or be banned from registering for the examinations in future years.

End of Entry Proof

For Private Candidates

2.2.7

If you have registered for the Mid-Year examination, you will receive an email notification from Candidates Portal (CP) to download your Entry Proof from 16 May 2024.

If you have registered for the Year-End examination, you will receive an email notification from Candidates Portal (CP) to download your Entry Proof from 24 June 2024.

2.2.8

Your Entry Proof will show the following details:

- Your centre / index number,
- Examination venue (shown as school code and centre name),
- The subjects and papers you have registered for, and
- The examination dates and time of your papers.

2.2.9

Please contact SEAB via our feedback form at <https://go.gov.sg/askusseab> if you do not receive your Entry Proof for Mid-Year examinations by 21 May 2024 or Year-End examinations by 27 June 2024.

2.2.10

You must bring along the hardcopy Entry Proof on each examination together with your NRIC/FIN, as it will be used to verify your attendance at the examination venue. A sample Entry Proof is shown on the next page.

2.2.11

You must indicate your postal address accurately during registration. Your postal address will be used to send the examination certificate(s) to you.

Where possible, SEAB will post you to examination centres near your postal address for your examination(s). As the posting of the candidates is also dependent on other factors including the available examination centres for private candidates and the capacity in these centres, you may not be assigned to examination centres that are nearest to your postal address. Please check your Entry Proof for the exact venue for the different subjects registered.

2.2.12

As there is a large number of papers and different combinations of subjects offered to all candidates, you may have two papers that are scheduled at the same time on the same day. Arrangements will be made for you to take one paper first and have a 45-minute break before your next paper. You will be informed of the arrangements through SEAB by end-September 2024 for the GCE A-Level examinations. Please contact SEAB via our feedback form at <https://go.gov.sg/askusseab> if you are not informed of the arrangements by the respective timelines indicated above.

For Science Practical examinations, it is compulsory for candidates to wear covered shoes and long pants/trousers for safety reasons.

Use of Calculators and Dictionaries

3.17 Only approved calculators and dictionaries are allowed into the examination venue for examinations which allow the use of calculators and dictionaries. Any non-compliance will be considered as a breach of the examination rules and regulations, and you may be penalised.

3.18 Use of calculators

You are only allowed to use the approved calculator models listed on SEAB's website at <https://www.seab.gov.sg/home/examinations/approvedcalculators>. The calculators used in the national examinations should have the following minimum features:

1. Four arithmetic operations (+, −, ×, ÷) including the order of operations and use of brackets;
2. Fractional function which retains the fraction in the form 'a/b' and 'a b/c';
3. Square root ($\sqrt{\quad}$) and cube root ($\sqrt[3]{\quad}$) functions, and;
4. Value of Pi (π).

The use of any calculator with unacceptable features or that allows for the retrieval of information / programmes during the examinations is an infringement of the rules and regulations. The Invigilator will check and remove your calculator(s) during the examinations if it is not approved for use.

- 3.18.1 You are responsible for the working condition of your calculator(s). Any malfunction of your calculator during the examination will not be accepted as justification for special consideration. You may bring more than one approved calculator into the examination venue.
- 3.18.2 You are not allowed to share calculator(s) with another candidate during the examination.
- 3.18.3 Your scientific calculator must not be programmable or have permanent features of a programmed kind (e.g. calculators capable of numerical integration and / or numerical differentiation). You are not allowed to use the audio output (if any) on your calculator unless pre-approved.
- 3.18.4 You are not allowed to use the following types of calculators:
- Calculators with an external storage function that allow users to input and store data via external storage media (e.g. memory cards, tapes, and plug-in modules);
 - Calculators with wireless communication capability with other machines
 - Calculators with capabilities for storing and playing back audio recording.
- 3.18.5 Your calculator and its cover must not have any mathematical formulas, conversion table, instructions or handwritings. If your calculator contains such information and if they cannot be removed, the information must be securely covered and you must inform the examination personnel of this before the start of the examination.
- 3.18.6 The original model number and brand must be indicated clearly on the calculator for verification purposes.

- 3.18.7 You do not need to obtain a sticker from SEAB to label an approved calculator. However, for school candidates, your school might issue you with one for administrative reasons, and you can paste the sticker on your calculator.
- 3.18.8 Graphing calculators are allowed for use ONLY in subjects examined at the GCE A-Level H1, H2 and H3 Levels. You must ensure the following:
- You have cleared any information and / or programmes stored in the graphing calculators before the examination. You can refer to Annex A-2 on the steps to clear all memory in the graphing calculators;
 - You do not bring any prepared programmes into the examination room. Information (including text or formulae) and / or programmes stored in the calculator's memory must be cleared before the examination;
 - You do not bring any calculators with built-in symbolic algebra manipulations, symbolic differentiation, or integration into the examination room.
- 3.18.9 You would be considered to have breached the examination rules and regulations if you are found in possession of a calculator with unacceptable features and/or attempt to retrieve information / programmes from the calculator during the examinations. Your calculator may also be confiscated for the duration of your examinations.

3.19

Use of dictionaries:

- You are only allowed to use approved printed dictionaries or handheld electronic dictionaries (e-dictionaries) for subjects that are listed in Annex B (For GCE A-Level). The list of approved dictionaries is found on SEAB's website at <https://www.seab.gov.sg/home/examinations/approveddictionaries>.
- There is no approved list of dictionaries for Non-Tamil Indian Languages (NTIL). Any monolingual dictionary for those examinations may be used.
- There is no approved list of hard-copy bilingual dictionaries for GCE A-Level H2 Translation (Chinese). You may bring in any hard-copy bilingual dictionary (Chinese / English / English to Chinese / Chinese to English dictionary) and thesaurus. Monolingual dictionaries and E-dictionaries listed in ANNEX C (List of Approved Dictionaries) are also allowed for GCE A-Level H2 Translation (Chinese).
- Pictorial dictionaries such as "The Facts on File English/ Chinese Visual Dictionary" which functions as an encyclopaedia or compendium are not allowed for GCE A-Level H2 Translation (Chinese).
- No annotation(s) on any pages of the dictionary is allowed (e.g. written notes, post-it pads, highlights and quick tabs).
- The Invigilator will check and remove your dictionary during the examinations if it is not approved for use.

- 3.19.1 You must not have any dictionary with you if the use of a dictionary is prohibited for the examination paper that you are sitting.
- 3.19.2 Your e-dictionaries must be battery operated and set to the silent mode. Ear-pieces / headphones are not permitted in the examination venue.
- Note: It is your responsibility to have a replacement set of batteries during your examination.
- 3.19.3 Any fault with your e-dictionary during the examination will not be accepted as justification for special consideration. If required, you may bring more than one approved e-dictionary into the examination venue.
- 3.19.4 You must remove any external storage media (e.g. memory card and plug-in modules) from your e-dictionary before the examination if your e-dictionary has an external storage function.
- 3.19.5 You would be considered to have breached the examination rules and regulations if you are found in possession of a dictionary with annotations or unacceptable features and/or attempt to retrieve information / programmes from the dictionary during the examinations. Your dictionary may also be confiscated for the duration of your examinations.

3.20 Ownership of Examination Materials

- 3.20.1 The national examination materials (e.g. examination question papers and answer scripts) are copyrighted and must not be disseminated, published, reproduced in any other form or posted online, without prior permission from SEAB. SEAB will take the necessary actions if there are any suspected copyright infringements.
- 3.20.2 SEAB may recall any issued documents (including result slips and examination certificates) from you at any time at its sole discretion. Reasons for such recalls include, but are not limited to, a discovery that a candidate had committed a serious breach of the examination rules and regulations. In such cases, the candidate must return the required documents to SEAB without delay. A failure to comply may result in legal proceedings against the candidate to recover such documents and the associated costs
- 3.20.3 All materials submitted for examination purposes (e.g. examination scripts, materials submitted for coursework, project work and research work) are deemed as examination materials and their rights shall be assigned to SEAB.
- 3.20.4 By registering for the examinations offered by SEAB, you shall assign your rights in the examination materials to SEAB, and acknowledge that SEAB may collect, use and disclose your data for the purpose of carrying out all functions and duties of the SEAB under the SEAB Act 2003.
- 3.20.5 Examination centres and candidates are not permitted to submit examination materials for exhibition, competition, publication or for any other purposes without the authorisation of the Chief Executive, SEAB.

- 3.20.6 SEAB may return coursework materials to the examination centres at its own discretion. While steps will be taken to avoid any damage to the coursework materials, SEAB will not be held responsible for any loss of or damage to the materials during or after marking. If your coursework materials are not returned, and should you require the coursework materials to be returned to support any applications, you should write to SEAB via our feedback form at <https://go.gov.sg/askusseab> immediately after the release of the results to request for the materials. SEAB will assess your request on a case-by-case basis.

If you fail to comply with abovementioned rules and regulations or any other additional instructions issued by SEAB for any specific examination paper or subject, you would be deemed to have breached the examination rules and regulations. As a result, you may:

- Be prohibited from taking the examination(s);
- Be expelled from the examination premise;
- Be refused entry for subsequent papers;
- Have your results annulled or be imposed with a grade penalty;
- Have your result slip and / or examination certificate withheld or confiscated;
- Be banned from registering for future examination(s); and/or
- Be reported to the police for investigation and consequential prosecution.

4 INSTRUCTIONS FOR SITTING YOUR EXAMINATIONS

4.1 Reporting for your examination

4.1.1 You are required to report to your examination centre at least 30 minutes before the start of the examination. You must be seated at your assigned desk at least 15 minutes before the start of the examination. For Listening Comprehension Examinations, you must be seated at your assigned desk at least 30 minutes before the start of the examination (refer to Section 7.2 for more details).

4.1.2 You will not be given any make-up time if you report late for your examination. If you report after the end of your examination, you will be marked as absent for the paper and will receive an “Absent” grade for the subject.

4.2 During your examination

4.2.1 You must not flip open the question paper and answer booklet or start reading and writing unless you are told to do so by the examination personnel.

4.2.2 You must place your Entry Proof and Photo identification document (e.g. NRIC / Passport / Driver’s License / Foreign Identification Documents / Student Concession Pass) on your desk throughout the examination. The photo identification document should contain the name and identification number used for your registration for your examination.

- 4.2.3 Access Arrangements (AA): If you are granted AA, you should present the AA outcome letter to the examination personnel before the start of the examination. You must alert the examination personnel immediately if your approved AA is not given to you.
- 4.2.4 You should use 2B pencils for shading of the Personalised Multiple Choice Answer Sheet (PMCAS). A soft eraser should be used if you wish to change your answers.
- 4.2.5 You should write your answers clearly in blue /black ballpoint pen.
- 4.2.6 You should not use highlighters to highlight any part of your answers as this may affect the legibility of the answers. You are allowed to highlight the questions in the question papers and answer booklets.
- 4.2.7 You must submit your answers in the language in which the question paper is set, unless instructed otherwise by the questions.
- 4.2.8 You are advised not to use correction fluid/ tape in the national examinations. There have been instances where the use of correction fluid had affected the legibility of the examination answer scripts. There have also been instances where answers were left incomplete after the correction fluid/ tape had been applied. In addition, answer scripts with correction fluid/ tape may be damaged if they are scanned.
- 4.2.9 You are not allowed to eat in the examination venue. You can drink water and the water bottle must be placed on the floor next to your seat.

5 INSTRUCTIONS FOR UNEXPECTED SITUATIONS

5.1

If you are hospitalised or suffering from contagious diseases (e.g. chicken pox), you must inform your school (for school candidates) or SEAB via our feedback form (for private candidates) as soon as you have seen a doctor.

Arrangements can be made for you to sit the examination if:

- you have been certified as medically fit by a qualified medical practitioner to sit for the examination; and
- your request to sit for the examination is submitted through your school to SEAB (for school candidates) or directly to SEAB via our feedback form at <https://go.gov.sg/askusseab> (for private candidates) before the start of examination.

SEAB can arrange for you to take the examination in the hospital if you are hospitalised, or at your own school or designated examination centre if you have certain types of contagious diseases. You will have to use your own stationery, dictionary, calculator etc when you sit your examination in the hospital, at your own school or at your designated examination centre.

- 5.2 If you are unable to sit for an examination conducted at your own school or at centralised examination centres due to unforeseen situations, or have sat an examination under adverse conditions (e.g. medical reasons, bereavement, physical injuries) at your own school or at centralised examination centres, you may apply for Special Consideration (SC), provided:

- 5.2.1 You have completed at least 50% of the component weighting for the affected subject; and
- 5.2.2 You have the relevant evidence and supporting documents to support your application (e.g. medical report / statement from a qualified medical practitioner or a death certificate due to bereavement reason).
- 5.2.3 All SC applications due to medical illness must be supported by a medical report/statement from a qualified medical practitioner or relevant supporting documents.
- The medical report / statement must clearly state the doctor's diagnosis and be dated before or on the same day as the affected examination date(s), and state that you were unwell while taking the examination or are unfit to take the examination.
 - Medical documents submitted with dates not covering the assessment and examination date(s)/period will not be accepted.
 - We would not be able to process SC applications if the medical certificates do not contain the doctor's diagnosis.

5.2.4 For School Candidates

You must inform your school early before the start of the affected examination paper or immediately after the affected examination paper (including papers examined in own school or in other examination centres), if you have been adversely affected by the event.

You may submit SC application(s) with the supporting document(s) to SEAB through your school no later than 3 working days after the day of examination. Late application will not be accepted after the deadlines as stipulated in Para 5.2.6.

5.2.5 For Private Candidates

If you are affected by the event for any examination paper, you may submit SC application(s) with the supporting document(s) through SEAB Candidates Portal (CP) at <https://myexams.seab.gov.sg/auth/login> using your Singpass or your username & password used during registration no later than 3 working days after the day of examination. Upon login, click on Making Requests > Special Consideration. Late application will not be accepted after the deadlines as stipulated in Para. 5.2.6.

For clarification on Special Consideration matters, you may send an e-mail to SEAB_GCE_SC@seab.gov.sg.

Please inform your school / SEAB early, as you must submit your completed SC application(s) with the supporting documents, no later than 3 working days after the last day of the examination level's examination. Late submissions or applications with incomplete information or supporting documents from the below deadlines would not be processed. The latest date for submission of SC for each examination are as follows:

Latest date for submission of SC application	Exam Level	Remarks
By 22 Jul (Mon)	A-level	Mid-year Mother Tongue Language (MTL)/MTL B examination Oral and Listening Comprehension (LC) Exams conducted in Jul)
By 23 Oct (Tue)	A-level	For Science Practical papers
By 3 Dec (Tue)		For Year-end papers

Note: All School and Private Candidates are advised to submit the SC application(s) and supporting document(s) to schools or via Candidate Portal by the submission deadlines to allow timely processing of the applications. Late submissions or applications with incomplete information or supporting documents from the deadlines stated above would not be processed.

5.3 Major Disruptions (e.g. Train Service Disruption, Massive Traffic Jam or Flood on an Examinations Day)

- In the event of a major train service disruption, you do not have to obtain any documentation from the train operators.
- The list of examination centres near MRT / LRT stations can be obtained from:
 - SEAB's website at <https://www.seab.gov.sg/>;
 - SEAB's advisory posters at the MRT stations; and
 - LTA's 'MyTransport.SG' app

You should go through and familiarise yourself with the list at least one week before the start of your examinations.

5.3.1 If you can arrive at your designated examination centre before the end of the paper:

5.3.1.1 You should still make your way to your designated examination centre;

5.3.1.2 You will be given the full duration to sit the paper if you arrive before the end of the paper.

5.3.2 If you are unable to arrive at your designated examination centre before the end of the paper:

5.3.2.1 You can head to an examination centre nearest to you to take your examination. School candidates should inform your school and private candidates should contact SEAB at https://www.seab.gov.sg/home/about-us/contact-us immediately to notify SEAB of the examination centre that you are heading to;

5.3.2.2 You should follow the instructions provided at the train station on the bridging transport services available, or head to the Passenger Service Centre for assistance (if you are caught in a major train service disruption);

5.3.3 If you arrive at the examination centre after the paper has ended or are unable to reach an examination centre at all, school candidates should inform your school and private candidates should contact SEAB at https://www.seab.gov.sg/home/about-us/contact-us immediately.

You may be posted to another examination centre to take your examinations for certain subjects such as Music Practical, Science Practical, Art and Foreign Language examinations.

For such papers, you must still report to the designated examination centre indicated on your entry proof even if you are unable to reach the examination centre before the end of the paper.

5.3.4 If you have any enquiries regarding the major train service disruptions, school candidates should contact your school and private candidates should contact SEAB via our feedback form at <https://go.gov.sg/askusseab>.

6 RESULTS AND EXAMINATION CERTIFICATES

6.1 Release of Results

	Tentative Dates of Results Release for Mid-Year examinations	Tentative Dates of Results Release for Year-End examinations
GCE A-Level	End-August of the examination year	Mid-February of the following year
GCE A-Level (Project Work)		Mid-April of the following year

6.1.1

For School Candidates

Result Release for Mid-Year, Year-End and Project Work: You will be issued your examination certificate through your school on the day of the release of results.

6.1.2

For Private Candidates

Result Release for Mid-Year: You can view your Mid-Year examination results online via SEAB Candidates Portal. You may register to re-sit MTL Written examinations at the Year-End examination. The better MTL grade will be reflected when the Year-End results are released.

Result Release for Year-End: You can view your Year-End examination results online via SEAB Candidates Portal. Your examination certificate will be mailed to the postal address that you have provided to SEAB within five (5) working days from the date of the results release.

If you are eligible for Singpass, you can view your examination results online via SEAB's Candidates Portal with your Singpass account.

If your Singpass PIN had expired, you can reset your password instantly online or request for a new PIN mailer via the Singpass website.

If you are not eligible for Singpass, i.e. International Students, SEAB will send a system-generated username to your email address a few days before your examination's results release exercise.

Note: The Singpass has been enhanced with a Two-Factor Authentication (2FA) for all e- government transactions that display sensitive individual data or those that require a high level of identity assurance. The SEAB's Candidates Portal is one such e-government service that requires a 2FA login. If you are eligible to apply for Singpass, you are advised to visit the Singpass website at <https://www.singpass.gov.sg> to register, activate and link your mobile phone / token with your Singpass account.

6.1.3 If there is cause for suspicion that any examination rules or regulations have been breached, SEAB may withhold your examination results until investigations are completed.

6.1.4 It is compulsory that you sit for all registered components of a subject, such as the Oral, Listening Comprehension, Coursework, Practical and Written papers. You will receive an "Absent" grade for the subject if you do not turn up for one or more components unless you have been granted an exemption by SEAB for that component.

6.1.5  Candidates who withdraw from the examinations will have their national examination registration records deleted. These candidates will not receive any results or examination certificates for any subjects or components that they have sat for. If examination results, such as the Mid-Year MTL examination results have already been released, the results will be invalidated.

6.2 Appeal for Review of Results

6.2.1 You may apply to review your examination results if you feel that the grade you have obtained does not accurately reflect your achievement in the subject. An appeal fee will be charged for each subject.

6.2.2 Please note that the appeal process includes a review of the marking and a full clerical re-check on the accuracy of mark entries. The review will be carried out by a senior marker who is different from the original marker. All scripts are carefully marked by experienced teachers who teach the subject and who have undergone the required training before marking. These marked scripts are also reviewed and checked carefully during the appeal process by the senior markers. Hence, SEAB does not release the marked scripts to the candidates.

6.2.3 For School Candidates
You must submit your appeal application and make payment to your school if you wish for SEAB to review your examination results within five (5) working days from the day of results release. Late applications after the deadline will not be accepted.

6.2.4 For Private Candidates
You must submit your appeal application and make payment through SEAB's Candidates Portal, within five (5) working days from the day of results release. Late applications after the deadline will not be accepted.

After submitting your application and making the payment, your appeal will be processed. Please note that once submitted, the application cannot be withdrawn and no refunds will be provided.

For clarifications, please contact SEAB via the feedback form at <https://go.gov.sg/askusseab>.

6.2.5 You can expect to receive the outcome within six (6) weeks after the appeal deadline. School candidates will receive through your school and private candidates will receive an email from SEAB to your registered email address. Should your appeal result in a change in examination results, the examination results will be adjusted accordingly, and a replacement examination certificate will be issued to you.

7.7 H3 Programmes offered by MOE Partners

7.7.1 Withdrawal Period

Three autonomous universities (AUs), namely, Nanyang Technological University (NTU), National University of Singapore (NUS) and Singapore Management University

(SMU) are the examining agencies of the H3 programmes. A withdrawal period applies to the respective programmes:

H3 Programmes	Withdrawal Period
Taught programmes	within 2 weeks from the start of instruction
Science Research programmes	2 weeks from the confirmation of students' research proposals
Humanities & Social Science Research programme	2 weeks from the start of NUS HSSR school term

7.7.2 You are allowed to withdraw from the H3 programme(s) within the withdrawal period. After the withdrawal period, you are deemed to have registered with SEAB for the H3 programme(s). Should you withdraw from the programme(s) after the withdrawal period, you will be charged an administrative fee and an "ABSENT" grade will be reflected on your A-Level results.

7.7.3 You should submit your AA application to the relevant AU(s) through your school. The application should include any documents related to AA.

7.7.4 Special Consideration (SC) – Taught programmes

Should you have sat the final examination under adverse conditions (e.g. medical reasons, bereavement, physical injuries), you may submit your SC application to the relevant AU(s) through your school, provided:

- You have completed 100% of the component weighting for the affected subject.
- You have the relevant evidence and supporting documents to support your application (e.g. medical report / statement from a qualified medical practitioner or a death certificate due to bereavement reason).

You must inform your school before the start of the affected examination paper or immediately after the affected examination paper, if you have/would be adversely affected by the event. Please inform your school early, as your school needs to submit completed SC application(s) with the supporting documents to AU(s), no later than 3 working days after the examination.

Late submissions or applications with incomplete information or supporting documents from the deadlines stated above would not be processed.

7.7.5 Absent from the Final Examination – Taught programmes

Should you be absent from the final examination, an "ABSENT" grade will be reflected on your A-Level results.

7.7.6 Appeal for Review of Results

You may apply to SEAB for a review of your examination results if you feel that the grade obtained does not accurately reflect your achievement in the programme(s). AUs will conduct a review in compliance with SEAB's and the respective AUs' policies.
