PART 1 – READING ALOUD

You belong to a dance group which wants to encourage more young people to join it. You have been invited to tell people about it at a neighbourhood meeting. This is what you say.

Hello, everyone. I am here representing my dance group, the Youth Dance Collective, to tell you about what we do. We are based here in our neighbourhood and have been putting on performances for the past four years. Perhaps, some of you have seen us at neighbourhood events?

We are a very enthusiastic and dedicated group of young people aged from eight to eighteen. We meet every Friday to train, learn new dances and practise for various upcoming events. Some of our older members will be leaving the group soon so we're looking for new members.

That's why I am here this evening – to persuade some of you young people to join us! You don't need to be an expert, or have any dance experience at all, just an interest in music, rhythm and dance.

We will teach you everything you need to know and help you develop as a dancer.

One of our relatively new members said:

'I went along to a dance practice with a friend, just to sit and watch, but I was soon persuaded to join in. After three months, I already feel fitter and stronger. I've also made lots of new friends.'

So please come along next Friday and find out more!

PART 2 – SPOKEN INTERACTION

This video shows children on a zip line in a playground.

You will engage in a discussion with the Examiners on a topic broadly related to the video clip. You will not be asked any questions about what people say.
