1 INTRODUCTION

1.1 The University of Cambridge International Examinations (CIE), the Ministry of Education, Singapore (MOE) and the Singapore Examinations and Assessment Board (SEAB) are the joint examining authorities for the examinations except for Mother Tongue Language subjects and subjects examined in Mother Tongue Language, where SEAB is the examining authority.

1.2 The Singapore-Cambridge General Certificate of Education [Advanced Level] Examination is administered by SEAB.

1.3 This document contains instructions that you need to know if you are sitting for the GCE A-Level Examination.

1.4 By registering for the examination, you have to read, understand and agree to comply with the examination instructions and regulations in this booklet and in other exam documents issued by SEAB; and accept the possible consequences in the event of a breach of the regulations.

1.5 SEAB may issue additional administrative or procedural instructions for the conduct of specific examinations (for example, written papers, coursework, oral, and practical). You will be informed of the new or updated instructions through your school. Such new or updated instructions are part of the examination instructions and regulations, and they take immediate effect unless specifically stated.

1.6 No part of this document, whether image, text or otherwise, may be copied, reproduced, published, adapted, modified, distributed, transmitted, communicated and/or stored in any form or by any means without the prior written permission of the SEAB.

1.7 If you have any queries or uncertainties, you should approach your school for clarification.
2 EXAMINATION TIME-TABLE AND ENTRY PROOF

2.1 Examination Time-table
You should refer to the Examination Time-Table at https://www.seab.gov.sg/ for the subjects which you have registered for.

2.2 Entry Proof

2.2.1 You will receive a personalised Entry Proof from your school by 27 June 2018.

2.2.2 The Entry Proof will show:
   a) Your Centre/Index Number
   b) Examination venue (shown as school code and centre name)
   c) The subjects and papers you have registered for
   d) The examination dates and times of your papers

2.2.4 If you have registered two papers which are scheduled to be examined at the same time on the same day, arrangements will be made for you to take one paper first, followed by a break, before you take the other paper.

Instructions to Candidates:

1. You are required to bring along this entry proof and the identification document (e.g. NRIC or Passport) bearing the identification number as stated on this entry proof when you report for the examinations. Please report to your examination centre at least half an hour before the commencement of each examination.

2. You will be informed of the detailed schedule for the Practical Examination, Foreign Language/Other Tongue Syllabus B (Year-End) Oral Examination and centralised centre for Music (if applicable) through your school.

3. You are not allowed to leave the examination hall/room for the full duration of the examination paper.

4. If you have registered for subjects where calculators or dictionaries are allowed, you must ensure that the calculators or dictionaries have been approved for use during examination by the Singapore Examinations and Assessment Board (SEAB). The lists of approved calculators or dictionaries can be found in the "Instructions for School Candidates Taking the A-Level Examination" booklet and at http://www.seab.gov.sg. Please also ensure that you have read and understood the instructions and regulations governing the use of calculators and dictionaries that are stated in the same instruction booklet.

To Note:

Candidates sitting for the GCE A-Level Examinations are required to observe and comply with all instructions and regulations governing the examinations that are stated in the "Instructions for School Candidates Taking the A-Level Examination" booklet.

By registering for the examinations, a candidate confirms that he/she has read, understood and expressly agreed to accept the instructions and regulations contained in the instruction booklet.

3 EXAMINATION RULES AND REGULATIONS

3.1 You must not have in your possession:

3.1.1 Any unauthorised electronic, communication, entertainment or gaming devices capable of capturing, storing, displaying and/or transmitting or receiving visual, audio or verbal information within the examination premises (e.g. Examination Room, Quarantine Room, Waiting Room).

Examples of prohibited devices include (but not limited to) mobile phones, cameras, tablets, earphones/earpieces (wired or wireless), fitness trackers, smart wrist watches/glasses, pen with image capturing capabilities, game console or music player.

3.1.2 Any unauthorised reference materials or notes. All stationery/belongings taken into the examination venue (e.g. pencil case, calculator(s), mathematical set, ruler, entry proof) must not have any unauthorised notes/information written on them.

These will include (but are not limited to) conversion table/mathematical formula sheet enclosed in or printed on the mathematical instrument box, any study notes or any exam question papers.

3.1.3 Any calculator or dictionary that is not listed in the Approved List of Calculators/Dictionaries. You can refer to Annex A for the list of approved calculators and Annex C for the list of approved dictionaries.

3.2 You must not commit or attempt any acts of dishonesty, or support such acts. For example, writing information/notes on any part of your body, taking the examination on someone else’s behalf, using unauthorised devices, or copying of answers.

3.3 You must not commit plagiarism, or support such acts (e.g. using someone else’s work or findings without acknowledging the source of that information).

3.4 You must not communicate or attempt to communicate with any other candidate/unauthorised person inside or outside of the examination room during the examination or any other occasion when communication is strictly prohibited. For example, when answer scripts are being collected, or during movement to the quarantine area.

3.5 You must not turn around and should only face the front during the examination.
3.6 You must not write any offensive or obscene materials in your answers.

3.7 You must not exhibit improper conduct or misbehaviour during the examination. Examples include disturbing other candidates, disobeying instructions from examination personnel.

3.8 You must not leave the examination room/hall, quarantine and holding room unescorted or without permission from the examination personnel.

3.9 You must not flip open or turn over the question paper placed on your desk until instructed to do so at the time of commencement of the examination.

3.10 You must stop writing after the invigilator has made the announcement to do so. You are to remain seated quietly while your answer scripts are being collected and counted.

3.11 You must not remove any examination material and stationery without permission. These can include:

- Any answer booklet, writing paper, storage devices and other used or unused exam stationery from the examination venue.
- Any coursework material/artefact from the examination centre without seeking prior approval from SEAB.

3.12 You must not submit similar coursework (in part or whole) for more than one paper in the present year of examination or which has been submitted for past examinations.

Use of Calculators and Dictionaries

3.13 You must adhere to the following rules where the use of scientific calculators and dictionaries is allowed in the examinations. Any non-compliance will be considered as a breach of the examination regulations and you may be subjected to the penalty measures.
3.14 Use of calculators

You are only allowed to use the approved calculator models listed under Annex A. The calculators used in the national examinations should have the following minimum features:

- a) four arithmetic operations (+, −, ×, ÷) including the order of operations and use of brackets;
- b) fractional function which retains the fraction in the form ‘a/b’ and ‘a b/c’;
- c) square root (√) and cube root (∜) functions; and
- d) value of Pi (π).

The use of any calculator with unacceptable features or for retrieval of information/programs during the examinations is an infringement of the regulations.

3.14.1 Your calculator must be silent, with a visual display only.

3.14.2 You are to ensure that the calculator is in working condition (including the power supply) and any fault in the calculator will not be considered as justification for special consideration.

3.14.3 You are not allowed to share calculators with another candidate during the examination.

3.14.4 You are not allowed to use the following types of calculators:
- Calculators with an external storage function which can allow users to input and store data via external storage media, e.g. memory cards, tapes, and plug-in modules.
- Calculators with wireless communication capability with other machines, e.g. infra-red communication capability.
- Calculators with capabilities for storing and displaying verbal information.

3.14.5 Your calculator and its cover must not have any mathematical formula, conversion table or instructions. Any such information on the calculator that cannot be removed must be securely covered and you must inform the Exam Personnel before the start of exam.

3.14.6 The original model number and brand must be indicated clearly on the calculator for verification purposes.
3.14.7 Your scientific calculator must not be programmable or with permanent features of a programmed kind e.g. calculators capable of numerical integration and/or numerical differentiation.

3.14.8 Graphing calculators are allowed for use ONLY in subjects examined at H1, H2 and H3 Levels of the GCE A-Level Curriculum. You are to note of the following:

a) You have cleared any information and/or programs stored in the graphing calculators before the examination. You can refer to Annex A-1 on the steps to clear all memory in the graphing calculators.

b) No prepared programs may be taken into the examination room. Information (including text or formulae) and/or programs stored in the calculator’s memory must be cleared before the examination.

c) No calculators with built-in symbolic algebra manipulations, symbolic differentiation or integration are allowed.

3.14.9 It is an infringement of the examination regulations if you use a calculator with unacceptable features or retrieve information/programs from the calculator during the examinations.

3.15 Use of dictionaries:

- You are only allowed to use approved printed dictionaries or handheld electronic dictionaries for subjects that are listed in Annex B. The list of approved dictionaries is in Annex C.

- There is no approved list of dictionaries for Non-Tamil Indian Languages (NTIL). Any monolingual dictionary for the examination subject language may be used.

- No annotation on any pages of the printed dictionary are allowed (e.g written notes, post-it pads, highlights and quick tabs).

3.15.1 You must not possess any dictionary in examinations where the use of a dictionary is prohibited.

3.15.2 Your e-dictionary must be silent and battery operated. Ear-pieces / headphones are not permitted in the examination venue.

Note: You should ensure that a replacement set of batteries is available.
3.15.3 No allowance will be made should your e-dictionary fail to function during the examination.

3.15.4 You must remove any external storage media (e.g. memory card and plug-in modules) before the examination if your electronic dictionary has an external storage function.

3.15.5 You are not allowed to share your dictionary with or borrow dictionary from other candidates during the examination.

3.15.6 There is no approved list of dictionaries for A-Level H2 Translation (Chinese)

   You may bring in any hard-copy dictionary (Chinese / English / English to Chinese / Chinese to English) as long as there are no annotations on any of the pages.

   No electronic dictionaries are allowed for A-Level H2 Translation (Chinese).

3.16 Ownership of Examination Materials

3.16.1 The national examination materials (e.g. exam question papers and answer scripts) are copyrighted and must not be published, reproduced in any other form or posted online, without prior permission from SEAB. SEAB will take the necessary actions if there are any copyright infringements.

3.16.2 SEAB may recall any issued documents (including result slips and certificates) from you at any time in its sole discretion. This includes, but is not limited to, the discovery of any breach of the examination rules and regulations. In such cases, you must return the required documents to SEAB without delay. Failure to comply may result in legal proceedings against you to recover such documents and costs.

3.16.3 All examination scripts and materials (for example, coursework, project work and research work etc.) submitted for assessment purposes are deemed as exam material and will thus become property of SEAB.

3.16.4 Examination centres and candidates are not permitted to submit examination materials for exhibition, competition, publication or for any other purposes without the authorisation of the Chief Executive, SEAB.
3.16.5 SEAB may return coursework material to the schools at discretion. SEAB will not be held responsible for any loss of or damage to the materials during or after marking, if they sustain damages during the assessment process. However, SEAB will do its utmost to avoid any damages.

If you fail to comply with abovementioned rules and regulations or any other additional instructions issued by SEAB for any specific examination paper or subject, you would be deemed to have breached the examination rules and regulations. As a result, you may:

- Be prohibited from taking the examination;
- Be expelled from the examination premise;
- Be refused entry for subsequent papers;
- Have your results annulled or imposed with a grade penalty;
- Have your result slip and/or certificate withheld or confiscated;
- Be banned from registering for future examinations; and/or
- Be reported to the police for investigation and consequential prosecution.

4 INSTRUCTIONS FOR SITTING THE EXAMINATIONS

4.1 Reporting for examination

4.1.1 You are required to report to your examination centre in school uniform at least 30 minutes before the start of the examination. You have to be seated at your assigned desk at least 15 minutes before the start of the examination.

4.1.2 You will not be given any make-up time if you report late for examination. If you report after the end of the examination, you will be marked as absent for the paper and will receive an 'Absent' grade for the subject.

4.1.3 If you are wearing outerwear (jackets, cardigan, windbreaker, sweater etc) into the examination room/hall, you may be asked to remove the outerwear for checking of any unauthorised material or devices in your possession by the invigilators before or during the examination.

4.2 During examination

4.2.1 You must not open the question paper and answer booklets or start reading and writing unless you are told to do so by the examination personnel.
4.2.2 You must place your Entry Proof, NRIC or foreign identification documents on your desk throughout the examination.

4.2.3 Access Arrangement: If you are granted access arrangements, you should present the approved outcome letter to the examination personnel before the start of the examination. You must highlight immediately if your approved access arrangement is not given to you.

4.2.4 You should use 2B pencils for shading of the Personalised Multiple Choice Answer sheet.

4.2.5 You must submit your answers in the language in which the question paper is set, unless otherwise instructed by the questions.

4.2.6 You should avoid using correction tape or fluid on the answer script or writing paper as it may affect the legibility of your answers.

4.2.7 You must not eat in the examination room/hall. However, you are allowed to drink water and the water bottle must be placed on the floor next to your seat.

5 INSTRUCTIONS FOR UNEXPECTED SITUATIONS

If you are hospitalised or suffering from any infectious disease (e.g. chicken pox, you must inform your school before the start of the examination.

Arrangements can be made for you to sit the examination if:
- you have been certified as medically fit by a qualified medical practitioner to sit the examination and
- your request to sit the examination is submitted through your school to SEAB before the start of examination.

5.1 SEAB can make arrangements for you to sit the examination in the hospital if you are hospitalised. You will have to provide your own stationery, dictionary, calculator etc when you sit for the examination in the hospital.

5.2 If you are unable to sit an examination paper or sat the examination under adverse conditions (e.g. medical reasons, bereavement, physical injuries, etc) you may apply for Special Consideration, provided that:
5.2.1 You have sat for at least 50% of the total assessment of the affected subject, and

5.2.2 You have the relevant supporting documents to support your application (e.g. medical report/statement from a qualified medical practitioner).

You must inform your school before the start of the examination and submit the Special Consideration application through your Principal, within 3 working days after the examination.

5.3 Major Train Service Disruptions

In the event of a Major Train Service Disruption, you do not have to obtain an excuse chit from the train operators.

5.3.1 Candidates who are able to arrive at the examination centre before the end of the paper:

5.3.1.1 You should still make your way to your designated examination centre.

5.3.1.2 You will be given the full duration to sit the paper as long as you arrive before the end of the paper.

5.3.2 Candidates who are unable to arrive at the designated examination centre before the end of the paper:

5.3.2.1 You can go to an examination centre nearest to you to take your examination if you are unable to reach the examination centre before the end of the paper. Please inform your school immediately to report the name of the examination centre that you are heading to.

5.3.2.2 You should follow the instructions provided at the train station on the bridging transport services available or go to the Passenger Service Centre for assistance.

5.3.2.3 To familiarise yourself with the list of examination centres near MRT/LRT stations, please visit the following platforms at least 1 week before your examinations

- SEAB website (https://www.seab.gov.sg/)
- SEAB’s Advisory Posters at the MRT stations
- LTA’s ‘MyTransport’ app under ‘Find-My-Way’ module
5.3.3 Candidates who arrive at the examination centre after the paper has ended:

5.3.3.1 If you arrive at the examination centre after the paper has ended or unable to reach an examination centre at all, you should inform your school immediately.

You may be posted to another examination centre to take your examination for certain subjects such as Music Practical, Art and Foreign Language Listening Comprehension examinations.

For such papers, you must still report to the designated examination centre indicated on your entry proof even if you are unable to reach the examination centre before the end of the paper.

5.3.4 You must contact your school immediately if you have any enquiries regarding the major train service disruption.

5.4 Other Unexpected Situations

5.4.1 For any unexpected situations where you are not able to reach the school on time for the examination (e.g. caught in massive traffic jam or flood), you must contact your school immediately for assistance.

6 RESULTS AND CERTIFICATES

6.1 Release of Results

- The GCE A-Level Mid-Year Mother Tongue/Mother Tongue B examination results is scheduled to be released in mid August of the examination year.

- The GCE A-Level examination results is scheduled to be released in end February of the following year.

6.1.1 You will be issued with the result slip through your school on the day of results release.

6.1.2 There is no result slip for the GCE A-Level Mid-Year Mother Tongue Language or Mother Tongue Language Syllabus B examinations. Your school will inform you of your results.
6.1.3 Where there is cause for suspicion that any examination rules or regulations have been breached, SEAB may withhold the issuance of result slips and certificates to you, until investigations are completed.

6.1.4 You may not be issued your result slip or certificate if you are found to have breached any of the examination rules or regulations.

6.1.5 It is compulsory that you sit for all registered components of a subject, such as Oral, Listening Comprehension, Coursework, Practical and Written papers. You will receive an “Absent” grade for the subject if you do not turn up for one or more components, unless you have been granted prior exemption by SEAB for that component.

6.2 Appeal for Review of Results

6.2.1 You may apply to review your examination results if you feel that the grade you have obtained do not accurately reflect your achievement in the subject.

6.2.2 You must apply through your school if you wish to appeal for a review of your results.

6.2.3 Your appeal application must reach SEAB within five working days from the date of results release. SEAB will not accept your personal application if it is received after the deadline.

6.2.4 An appeal fee will be charged for each subject.

6.2.5 You can expect to receive the outcome by early April in 2019.
